

Cruising out of Manhattan, NY

Flying In

When cruising out of Manhattan you will be flying into either Newark Airport or LaGuardia. Newark Airport is roughly 45 minutes from the terminal and LaGuardia is about 40 minutes away.

We STRONGLY recommend not using JFK if at all possible

Newark Airport

Newark Airport has three terminals with shuttles between the three. No matter which one you land at finding your ride is quite easy. Once you navigate to the baggage claim you will be in view of the exits.

Upon walking out you will see the taxi stands or meet your rideshare vehicle in one of the lanes/curbs outside. The maps above show the layout for each terminal and pickup area. If you are renting a vehicle, there is a shuttle marked that will take you to the parking lots. The rental cars are all located in Parking A

LaGuardia Airport

Taxis: Outside baggage claim in all terminals.

Rideshare:

- Terminals A & C: Outside terminal.
- Terminal B: Right of exit doors, past welcome center, near parking garage.

Shuttles & Rental Car Shuttles:

- Terminals A & C: Outside, to the right.
- Terminal B: Level 1, outside doors.

Manhattan Cruise Terminal

Manhattan Cruise Port
Manhattan features two terminals Pier 88 and Pier 90. They are located right next to each other. Parking is available onsite for $45 per night by reservation.
